

The Waxing Crescent Moon and Saturn Meet in Pisces

The waxing crescent Moon meets up with Saturn, in the constellation Pisces - the Fishes, on the night of December 26th. The Moon reaches first quarter phase on the following night, December 27th. On these nights, Saturn is located some 896 million miles (80 light minutes) behind the Moon.

